WELCOMING NEW MEMBERS

The Chamber would like to welcome the following new businesses to our growing Chamber membership: Blitz Advertising, Canadian Red Cross Society, Godbout Auto Services Inc., Home Team Inspection Services, King's Gambit – School of Chess, Sheffield Gourmet and Tammy's Sunshine Cleaning.

SURVEY

The Kenora & District Chamber of Commerce in partnership with Meyers Norris Penny will be conducting another business survey in the Kenora area. PRA Inc., an independent research company based in Manitoba will be contacting business owners and managers to participate.

We ask that you please take the time to participate in this very important survey when PRA Inc. telephones you. All responses are held in strict confidence by PRA Inc. and will not be passed along to other organizations for the purposes of marketing or sales.

MIXER

The Chamber is planning another mixer on October 17th to share the results of the survey with the business community and interested parties.

SMALL BUSINESS WEEK

The Chamber of Commerce in partnership with LOWBIC and the Northwest Business Centre will be hosting Small Business Week from October 15 to 19, 2007. A variety of e-business topics will be presented during the 5 days and an "open house" scheduled for Friday, October 19th. A complete list of times, dates and seminars can be found at the website: www.bizweek.ca

OPEN FOR BUSINESS

The Chamber would like to thank those of you who joined in and helped promote that Kenora is Open for Business for the vacation season period (May 16 to September 15).

We are now going into the next season of business which is the late fall (September 16 to November 15). The deadline to join in is September 11th. Don't miss out on another great opportunity! Sign up today and promote the success of each others' businesses for the betterment of the business climate in Kenora.

If you haven't already signed up, please take a few moments and contact our office at 467-4646.

Chamber Members: Please let us know if you are hosting an event in the next two months that fellow Chamber members may be interested in attending. Fax our office at 467-4645 or email chamber@gokenora.com for publication in our next newsletter.
